day, was without change tonight.

The ransom has not been paid, as General Luis Terrasas, father of the prisoner, claims that out of his vast fortune no such sum is available.

An Appeal to Bryan.

An Appeal to Bryan.

Felix Martinez, prominent politically in this section, is reported to have telegraphed Secretary Bryan inviting him to use his good offices in behalf of the younger Terrazas. Many friends of the latter declare that Villa's threat of taking his captive south with him, which is regarded by the father as a death sentence, is all but empty, as with Luis alive he may be able to extort money from the family if any is left, while Luis dead would no longer be a weapon in his hands.

Advantage in Holding Terrazas.

Advantage in Holding Terrazas. Moreover, by keeping Luis prisoner, Villa may hope to control alleged po-litical activities of the aged father, who is accused by the rebels of financing recent fillbustering movements, particularly those of Jose Orozco and the Quevedo brothers.

George C. Carothers returned today from Nogales, where he had a satisfactory interview with General Carranza, he said. He expects to leave for Chihuahua within a few days.

CARRANZA DISCUSSED. Attitude of Rebel Chief Occupies Attention of Cabinet.

Washington, March 6-Although the American government intends to sus-pend any further developments of its policy toward Mexico until the commission of Mexican constitutionalists now investigating the recent execution of William S. Benton, a British subject, has made a report, today's cabinet meeting here developed a discussion of the importance of the future attitude of General Carranza toward the United States.

Should the Benton case remain unsettled in the event the cause of the constitutionalists is triumphant, strong intimations are heard in official circles that Great Britain would refuse to policy toward Mexico until the com-

that Great Britain would refuse to recognize Carranza, if he were elected. It is also taken for granted by of-scials that Great Britain might inwithhold recognition until reparation | erals.

COLQUITT'S REQUISITIONS. Texas Governor Recognizes Both Rebel and Federal Authority.

Dallas, Texas, March 6.—Governor O. B. Colquitt of Texas will make reqi-sition on both federal and rebel author-tites in the states of Nuevo Leon and Coahuila, Mexico, for the return of the four men held responsible for the kid-napping of the missing American ranchman, Clemente Vergara. The governor made this announcement tonight, after he had received a telegram night, after he had received a telegram from Secretary of State Bryan, saying the question of requisition was one of justice and not of diplomacy, and concerned only local authorities.

General Joaquin Mass, federal commander of the northern zone, notified the governor yesterday that he had ordered the arrests of the men wanted.

NOT IN BUSINESS. George W. Vanderbilt Was a Student and Traveler.

New York, March 6.—George Washington Vanderbilt was the youngest and probably the least known of the sons of the late William H. Vander-bilt, He never took an active part in the business and financial world. He was a student and a traveler and his chief interest was his magnificent estate at Biltmore, near Asheville N.

C, where he spent the greater part of his time.

Mr. Vanderbilt was bern in the old Vanderbilt home at New Dorp, Staten Island, November #, 1862. In 1885 he became interested in the wild meunain region of western North Caro-ina and by successive purchases he accumulated an estate of 100,000 acres on the French Broad river and laid out there a vast park and erected buildings on a scale which has seldem been equalled in this country. Mr. Van-derbilt devoted most of his time to the personal supervision of this estate. In the valley he built a model town and called it Blitmore. His farms were filled with blooded stacks.

MAKES BUSINESS NAME FAMILIAR

How many business houses do you know in New York, Boston or any of the large cities? Think them over and recall how many there are whose names are familiar to you, which have not been made so through advertising. It will not be at all surprising if the number is small. They have recognized the value of getting their name before you regularly in the advertising columns of the newspapers. They could command your attention and trade if those cities should be visited by you because they have established their name

It is the far sighted merchant who looks at his opportunities in the same way. Traders who come to Norwich from the surrounding towns, like those who live in the city, know the benefit of the advertisement. They know the stores in advance and are not inclined to waste their time investigating unfamiliar stores or unadvertised stocks. The buying public has better use for its time than getting far from the stores which are actively seeking business, and these people depend upon The Bulletin to keep them posted on where their wants can be supplied. Through its advertising columns the day's trading route can be laid out in advance. The following items have appeared in The Bulletin, the home

W. W. Leader Held for the Grand Jury-Terms of Thirty Days Imposed Upon Two of His Followers

New York March 6-Frank Tannenbaum, the 21 year old Industrial Worker of the World and leader of a worker of the world and leader of a small army of unemployed who have been invading churches in this city for the purpose of getting food and lodging, was held today for the grand jury in connection with the raid of Wednesday night on St. Alphonsus' church by Tannenbaum and 190 of his followers, Tannenbaum, who had been released on $7,500 ball after his prelimbary hearing, was held in the same ball. The charge against him is inciting a riot, a felony. Two members of his "army" of unemployed were earlier in the day sentenced each were earlier in the day sentenced each to thirty days at hard labor, Tannenbaum Did Not Testify. Tannenbaum did not take the stand

Tannenbaum did not take the stand in his own defense. The evidence submitted to Magistrate Freschi consisted of reports of speeches made by Tannenbaum and others in Rutgers square, which had been taken by a police stenographer and testimony by pelice officials and Fathers Schneider and Kassler of St. Alphonsus' church. Detective Gildea testified that Tannenbaum had called on the crowd to follow him to the church. Asked at the door of the building whether he had permission to enter it. Tannenhad permission to enter it. Tannen-baum had replied no, said the de-tective who then accompanied him to the rectory where Father Schneider was asked for food and shelter or money for the unemployed. Tan-nenbaum's requests for these were answered by the priest with the state-ment that he was not able to furnish them.

to admit the unemployed to the church, receiving a negative answer. Gildea added that Tannenbaum had called upon the men to keep their seats when they had been asked by Father Kessler to leave.

The testimony of detective Gegan and Fathers Schneider and Kessler corroborated that of Gildea. Another witness, William Huff, testified that he had been praying in the church and had been interrupted by the intruders.

A $200,000 Defense Fund.

A motion by the defense that the case against Tannenbaum be dismissed on the ground that he had commit-ted no act of violence against proper-ty or person was denied. It became evident early in the hearing that Tan-nenbaum's attorney would make no defense at this time.

Max Appell, secretary of the ternational Workingmen's De league, organized night, stated tonight that $30,000 had already been raised for the defense of Tannenbaum. By the end of the week, he said, the sum of $200,000 week, he said, the sum of $200, would be available for the purpose.

Invited to St. Mark's Church. Frank Strong Hamilton and Harry Kliene, lieutenants of Tannenbaum, will meanwhile carry on the movement inaugurated, according to Appell. Tomorrow afterneon a mass meeting will be held for the unemployed on Union square, he said, and the next place to be visited by the men would be Temple Bethel. Ap-pell announced that the unemployed had an invitation to come to St. Mark's church next Monday.

"Pass them along" is the plan on which California communities are dealing with "General" Kelley's army of unemployed, now on its way to Wash-ington, D. C., and as a result the tour-ists are traveling in comfort. It cost Contra Costa county $769.50 in railroad fares to shap the army to Benicia, Solano county. Benicia at once made preparations to send it to Yolo and Sacramento counties. An ap-peal to the state railroad cammission brought permission for the Southern Pacific to grant a reduced fare, but the railroad company itself refused to the railroad company has resulted to be a party to any plan "for dumping a lot of undesirables onto unoffending communities," and the Solano county officials then agreed to pay first class fares, as had Contra Costa, A detective says the army compists of 172 officers and privates and is
